- (a) the dealer shall be making taxable sales;
- (b) the dealer shall have a prominent place of business owned or leased in his name;
- (c) the dealer shall have a bank account;
- (d) the dealer shall not have any tax arrears outstanding under the Andhra Pradesh General Sales Tax Act, 1957 or the Central Sales Tax Act, 1956 or under the Act.

(2) A VAT dealer registered under clause (a) of sub-section (6) of section 17 shall :—

- (a) maintain the full records and accounts required for VAT;
- (b) file accurate and timely VAT returns and pay any tax due;
- (c) remain registered for 24 months from effective date of registration.

(3) Where a VAT dealer is registered under clause (a) of sub-section (6) of section 17 fails to file timely tax returns and fails to pay any tax due and his taxable turnover remains under the limits specified in sub-sections (2) and (3) of section 17, the authority prescribed shall cancel such registration after giving the VAT dealer the opportunity of being heard.

9. Start up Business.— (1) A dealer intending to set up a business in taxable goods who does not anticipate making first taxable sale within the next three months and applying for VAT registration shall be treated as a start up business.

(2) The dealer referred to in sub-rule (1) shall make an application on Form VAT 104 in addition to Form VAT 100 to the authority prescribed.

(3) The dealer applying for registration as a start-up business under clause (b) of sub-section (6) of section 17, may apply to be registered only for a period of twenty four months prior to making taxable sales.

(4) The dealer registered as a start up business under clause (b) of sub-section (6) of section 17, may claim a tax credit on each tax return for a maximum period of twenty four months prior to making taxable sales. The input tax claimed must be in respect of tax paid on inputs relating to the prospective taxable business activities. The credit shall be eligible for refund under the provisions of section 38. The provisions of sub-section (1) (b) of section 38 shall apply only from the tax period in which the first taxable sale was made.

(5) The dealer registered as a start up business under clause (b) of sub-section (6) of section 17 shall abide by all the requirements and obligations of a VAT dealer including the proper keeping of books of accounts and regular filing of returns.

(6) A dealer shall cease to be registered under the provisions of clause (b) of sub-section (6) of section 17 and shall become registered under the provisions of sub-section (1) of section 17, when that dealer makes a taxable sale in the course of business.

(7) A dealer shall cease to be registered under the provisions of clause (b) of sub-section (6) of section 17 at the end of a twenty four months period from the date of registration if no taxable sale has been made. In such a case, the registration will be cancelled under the provision of Rule 12.

(8) The Deputy Commissioner may at his discretion, where there are reasonable grounds, vary the conditions under sub-rules (3), (4), (6) and (7) and may grant a further time upto twelve months for making the first taxable sale and to continue as start up business.

10. Issue of Certificates.— The authority prescribed shall issue :—

- (a) a certificate of VAT registration on Form VAT 105; or
- (b) in the case of a Start-up business, a notice on Form VAT 106 in addition to Form VAT 105;

- (c) in the case of TOT dealer, a certificate of TOT registration on Form TOT 003.

11. Suo-motu registration and refusal to register.— (1) The authority prescribed may register a dealer who, in the opinion of that authority, is liable to apply for registration as VAT dealer or a TOT dealer as the case may be, but has failed to do so. The dealer shall be provided with an opportunity to state his case before registration is effected. A registration under this sub-rule shall be issued on Form VAT 111 or on Form TOT 005, as the case may be.

(2) Where the authority prescribed is not satisfied with the information furnished by the applicant and has reasons to believe that the applicant does not meet the requirements for registration as VAT dealer or TOT dealer he shall provide an opportunity specifying the reasons for refusal before passing any orders for refusal to issue registration. A notification under this rule shall be issued on Form VAT 103 or on Form TOT 017, as the case may be.

12. Certificate of Registration.— (1) The certificate of VAT registration or TOT registration shall be displayed in a conspicuous place at the place of business mentioned in such certificate and a copy of such certificate shall be displayed in a conspicuous place at every other place of business within the State.

- (2) No certificate of registration issued shall be transferred.

(3) Where the certificate of registration issued is lost, destroyed, defaced or mutilated a duplicate of the certificate shall be obtained from the authority prescribed.

13. Changes in Registration Details.— (1) A dealer registered under section 17 shall notify the authority prescribed in writing on Form VAT 112 or on Form TOT 051 as the case may be, within fourteen days :—

- (a) of any change in the name, address, of the place of business or branches or discontinuation of the business;
- (b) of a change in circumstances of the dealer which leads to cessation of business;

- (c) of a change in business activities or in the nature of taxable sales being made or principal commodities traded;
- (d) of any changes in the constitution of the firm;
- (e) of a change in bank account details;
- (f) when a dealer commences or ceases to execute works contract for State Government or local authorities.

(2) Where changes in the status of business occur an application shall be made for fresh registration.

(3) (a) Where a dealer intends to change his place of business from the jurisdiction of one authority to the jurisdiction of another authority in the State, he shall make an application on Form VAT 112 or on Form TOT 051 as the case may be, with full particulars relating to the change of address and the reasons for such change, to the authority prescribed;

- (b) the authority prescribed receiving an application on Form VAT 112 or on Form TOT 051 as the case may be for a change of place of business shall, on approval of the application, remove such registration from the existing registration records. The registration file and the application shall be transferred to the authority prescribed in whose jurisdiction the proposed new place of business is sought to be established;
- (c) the authority prescribed receiving the registration file shall add the details to the records of that authority, and issue a new certificate of VAT registration, with the existing TIN and in respect of a TOT dealer, a new General Registration Number shall be issued wherever necessary;
- (d) the change in a place of business and a change in business activities shall not in itself, result in cancellation and fresh registration of a VAT dealer.

14. Procedure for Cancellation of VAT Registration.—

(1) Where a VAT dealer ceases to carry on business, that dealer or his legal representative shall apply to the authority prescribed for cancellation of registration within fourteen days of the closure of business.

(2) Subject to sub-rule (3), a VAT dealer may apply in writing on Form VAT 121 to have his VAT registration cancelled if :—

- (a) with respect to the most recent period of three consecutive calendar months, the taxable turnover did not exceed Rupees ten lakhs; and
- (b) the taxable turnover for the previous twelve consecutive calendar months did not exceed Rupees thirty lakhs.

(3) In the case of a VAT dealer making taxable sales, who is registered under clause (a) of sub-section (6) of section 17, an application under sub-rule (2) shall only be made after the expiration of twenty four months from the date of registration.

(4) Every VAT dealer whose registration is cancelled under this rule shall pay back input tax credit availed in respect of all taxable goods on hand on the date of cancellation. In the case of capital goods on hand on which input tax credit has been received, the input tax to be paid back shall be based on the book value of such goods on that date :

Provided that in respect of transfer of a business to another VAT dealer, there shall be no requirement to repay the input tax credit availed on capital goods and other goods.

(5) The authority prescribed may cancel the registration of a VAT dealer who has applied for cancellation under sub-rule (1) or sub-rule (2) if it is satisfied that there are valid reasons for such cancellation of registration. The cancellation shall be intimated on Form VAT 124.

(6) The authority prescribed may cancel the registration of a VAT dealer who has not applied for cancellation of registration if the authority prescribed is satisfied that the dealer is not entitled for registration under section 17 or found to be not complying with the provisions of the Act.

(7) The authority prescribed shall intimate on Form VAT 123 to a VAT dealer when refusing to cancel the registration of the dealer under this rule within fourteen days of receipt of Form VAT 121.

(8) The authority prescribed shall issue a notice on Form VAT 125 to a VAT dealer before compulsorily cancelling the registration.

(9) The authority prescribed may cancel the registration of a VAT dealer registered under sub-section (6) of section 17, where the VAT dealer :—

- (a) has no fixed place of abode or business; or
- (b) has not kept proper accounting records relating to any business activity carried on by him; or
- (c) has not submitted correct and complete tax returns.

(10) The cancellation of registration shall take effect from the end of the tax period in which the registration is cancelled unless the authority prescribed orders the cancellation to take effect at an earlier date.

(11) The cancellation of a registration of any VAT dealer shall not affect any liabilities under the Act or any requirement to comply with any provisions of the Act until the date of cancellation of registration.

(12) Wherever any order of cancellation or refusal to cancel is made, the VAT dealer shall be given an opportunity of being heard.

15. Procedure for cancellation of TOT registration.—

(1) Where a TOT dealer ceases to carry on business, that TOT dealer or his legal representative shall apply to the authority prescribed on Form TOT 014 for cancellation of general registration within fourteen days of the closure of business.

(2) A TOT dealer may apply for cancellation of his general registration at the end of any period of twelve consecutive months if his taxable turnover for that period does not exceed Rupees three lakhs seventy five thousand (Rs. 3,75,000/-).

(3) The authority prescribed shall issue an order of cancellation of registration on Form TOT 015 to the TOT dealer who has applied for cancellation, if satisfied that there are valid reasons for such cancellation of registration.

(4) The authority prescribed shall issue a notice on Form TOT 016 to a TOT dealer, when refusing to cancel the general registration number.

(5) The authority prescribed shall issue a notice on Form TOT 013 to a TOT dealer before compulsorily cancelling the general registration.

(6) Cancellation of general registration shall take effect from the end of the month in which the general registration is cancelled, unless the authority prescribed orders the cancellation to take effect from an earlier date.

(7) The cancellation of a registration of any TOT dealer shall not affect any liabilities under the Act or any requirement to comply with any provisions of the Act until the date of cancellation of registration.

(8) Wherever any order of cancellation or refusal to cancel an application is made, the TOT dealer shall be given an opportunity of being heard.

CHAPTER - III

DETERMINATION OF TAXABLE TURNOVER AND CALCULATION OF TAX PAYABLE

16. Determination of Taxable Turnover.— (1) Time of sale :—

- (a) a VAT dealer selling taxable goods shall account for the VAT at the earliest of the date of delivery of the goods or the issue of tax invoice;
- (b) input tax credit shall only be claimed on receipt of the tax invoice.

(2) The following amounts shall not be included for the purpose of determining the taxable turnover, namely :—

- (a) all amounts allowed as discount provided such discount is allowed in accordance with the regular practice of the VAT dealer, or is in accordance with the terms of a contract or agreement entered into in a particular case and provided also that accounts show that the purchaser has paid only the sum originally charged less the discount;
- (b) all amounts charged separately as interest or as finance charges in the case of a hire-purchaser transaction or any system of payment by instalments.

(3) An adjustment of sale price and VAT or any other tax can be made in relation to a taxable sale where :—

- (a) the sale is cancelled;
- (b) the nature of the sale has been fundamentally varied or altered; or
- (c) the previously agreed consideration for the sale has been altered by agreement with the recipient, whether due to an offer of a discount or for any other reason; or
- (d) the goods or part thereof have been returned to the seller within a period of twelve months from the date of sale and the dealer making the sale has accepted the return of the goods.

In the case of the events listed in clause (a) to (d) where a tax invoice or an invoice has not yet been issued, the sale price shall be adjusted in the tax invoice or in the invoice. Where a tax invoice or invoice has been issued, a credit or debit note shall be used to adjust the tax invoice or invoice in accordance with Rule 28.

- (e) Where any goods sold before 31-03-2005 are returned on or after 01-4-2005 and sales tax relief on closing stocks was already claimed by the buying VAT dealer, an amount equal to the purchase value of the goods and the sales tax credit claimed shall be deducted from the value of the input and the value of input tax in the tax period in which goods are returned by him provided credit note issued by the seller is on hand. The selling VAT dealer in such case may reduce his output value and output tax equal to the original sale value and the sales tax in the return for the tax period during which the goods have been returned;

- ¹[(f) wherever any credit notes are to be issued for discount or sales incentives by any VAT dealer to another VAT dealer after issuing tax invoice, the selling VAT dealer shall pass a credit note without disturbing the tax component on the price in the original tax invoice, so as to retain the quantum of input tax credit already claimed by the buying VAT dealer as well as not to disturb the tax already paid by the selling VAT dealer.

For example.— If 100 TVs are sold @ Rs. 10,000/- each, amounting to Rs. 10,00,000/-, the original tax charged @ 12.5% is Rs. 1,25,000/-. If the discount of 10% is offered subsequently based on fresh purchases, the selling dealer can pass on the benefit of Rs. 1,00,000/- for the price without disturbing the tax component of Rs. 1,25,000/-. The buying dealer will not alter the input tax credit already claimed amounting to Rs. 1,25,000/-. The selling VAT dealer will not claim reduction in output tax liability consequent to lowered price offered].

(4) Where the output tax properly due in respect of the sale exceeds the output tax actually accounted for by the VAT dealer making the sale, the amount of the excess shall be regarded as tax charged by the VAT dealer in relation to a taxable sale made in the tax period in which the adjustment took place.

(5) Where the output tax actually accounted for exceeds the output tax properly due in relation to that sale, the VAT dealer making the sale shall be eligible for an adjustment of excess amount of VAT in the tax period in which the adjustment took place :

Provided that no such adjustment shall be allowed where the sale has been made to a person who is not a VAT dealer unless the amount of the excess tax has been repaid by the VAT dealer to the recipient, whether in cash or as a credit against any amount owing by the recipient.

(6) The provisions of sub-rule (1) to (5) shall mutatis-mutandis apply to TOT dealer.

(7) In case of a VAT dealer specified in sub-section (9) of section 4, forty per cent (40%) of the total amount of consideration charged by such dealer shall be allowed as deduction and the balance of sixty per cent (60%) of the total amount of consideration shall be the taxable turnover for the purpose of levy of tax by way of composition.

17. Treatment of works contracts.— (1) Treatment of VAT dealer executing works contract :—

- (a) in the case of contracts not covered by sub-rules (2), (3) and (4) of this rule, the VAT dealer shall pay tax on the value of the goods at the time the goods are incorporated in the work at the rates applicable to the goods;
- (b) in such a case, the VAT dealer shall be eligible to claim input tax credit on ninety per cent (90%) of the tax paid on the goods purchased other than those specified in sub-rule (2) of Rule 20 and shall be eligible to issue a tax invoice;
- (c) if such VAT dealer awards any part of the contract to a sub-contractor, such sub-contractor shall issue a tax invoice to the contractor for the value of the goods at the time of incorporation in such sub-contract. The tax charged in the tax invoice issued by the sub-contractor shall be accounted by him in his returns;
- (d) the value of the goods used in execution of work in the contract, declared by the contractor shall not be less than the purchase value and shall include seigniorage charges, blasting and breaking charges, crusher charges, loading, transport and unloading charges, stacking and distribution charges, expenditure incurred in relation to hot mix plant and transport of hot mix to the site and distribution charges;

- (e) subject to clause (d) the following amounts are allowed as deductions from the total consideration received or receivable for arriving at the value of the goods at the time of incorporation :—
- (i) labour charges for execution of the works;
 - (ii) charges for planning, designing and architect's fees;
 - (iii) charges for obtaining on hire or otherwise machinery and tools used for the execution of the works contract;
 - (iv) cost of consumables such as water, electricity, fuel, etc., used in the execution of the works contract, the property in which is not transferred in the course of execution of a works contract;
 - (v) cost of establishment of the contractor to the extent it is relatable to supply of labour and services;
 - (vi) other similar expenses relatable to supply of labour and services;
 - (vii) profit earned by the contractor to the extent it is relatable to supply of labour and services;
- (f) where tax has been deducted at source, the contractor VAT dealer shall submit Form VAT 501-A after certification by the contractee. In case the contractor is unable to submit Form VAT 501-A he shall pay the tax due;
- (g) where the VAT dealer has not maintained the accounts to determine the correct value of the goods at the time of incorporation he shall pay tax at the rate of twelve and a half percent (12.5%) on the total consideration received or receivable subject to the deductions specified in the table below. In such cases the contractor VAT dealer shall not be eligible to claim input tax credit and shall not be eligible to issue tax invoices.

19. Calculation of VAT payable.— (1) Subject to sub-rule (2), the tax payable on a taxable sale is calculated by applying the rate of VAT specified in the Act to the sale price of the transaction.

(2) Where the sale price is to be determined under sub-section (2) of section 11, the VAT payable shall be calculated by the formula (TxR) , where T is the consideration received for the taxable sale and R is the tax fraction. The consideration minus the VAT calculated by the above formula is the sale price.

(3) The tax payable by a VAT dealer for a tax period shall be calculated by the formula, $X-Y$ where X is total of the VAT payable in respect of all taxable sales made by the VAT dealer during the tax period, and Y is the total input tax credit the VAT dealer is eligible to claim in the tax period under the Act.

(4) Where any dealer gets himself registered for VAT under sub-section (3) of section 17, within the time prescribed, the liability for VAT shall be from the effective date of registration.

(5) ¹[x x x]

20. Input Tax Credit.— (1) After the commencement of the Act, where any dealer gets registered as a VAT dealer or where the authority prescribed registers any dealer as a VAT dealer under Rule 11 (1), such dealer shall be eligible for input tax credit as provided under sub-section (2) (b) of section 13. The claim shall be made on Form VAT 118 within 10 days from the date of receipt of VAT registration. The goods on which the input tax credit is claimed or allowed shall be available in stock on the effective date of VAT registration. The documentary evidence for such claim shall be on the basis of a tax invoice issued by a VAT dealer for the purchases made and the input tax credit allowed on Form VAT 119 shall be claimed on the first return to be submitted by such dealers. The prescribed authority shall issue such Form VAT 119 within 10 days of receipt of Form VAT 118.

 As a result of this restriction on input tax credit for the goods (except kerosene) purchased for the purpose of Public Distribution System (PDS), the corresponding sales will not be liable to any tax. Accordingly the Food Corporation of India or Andhra Pradesh State Civil Supplies Corporation Limited will be liable to pay tax only, if their sales are first sales. They will not be liable to pay any tax on the sales of goods (except kerosene) purchased from local Value Added Tax Dealers and they will also be not eligible to claim any input tax credit for such purchases. Fair Price Shops are acting as agents on behalf of the State Government i.e., a resident principal. As such, fair price shops do not have any liability to register under Andhra Pradesh Value Added Tax Act, 2005 and to pay any tax. However, if the fair price shops are dealing in any other goods not supplied through Public Distribution System, they will be liable to register under Andhra Pradesh Value Added Tax Act, 2005 depending on their turnover of such goods and will have to pay tax accordingly.”

a VAT dealer having been denied the input tax credit at the time of purchase. Any VAT dealer having purchased items mentioned above shall maintain a separate account or record without including such purchases in the purchase of eligible inputs taxable at each rate.

Whenever a VAT dealer makes a claim for input tax credit for any tax period, the tax paid on the purchases of the above goods shall be excluded for arriving at the eligible input tax credit. This principle applies to all the sub-rules in this rule.

(3) Where all the sales of a VAT dealer for that tax period are taxable, the whole of the input tax may be claimed as a credit excluding the tax paid on the purchase of any goods mentioned in sub-rule (2).

¹[(3-a) Where any VAT dealer pays tax at the rate of twelve and half percent (12.5%) on the sale consideration of a used or a second hand vehicle already registered in the State under the Motor Vehicles Act, 1988, he shall be eligible for notional input tax credit at the rate of twelve and half percent (12.5%) on the purchase price actually paid supported by documentary evidence. Such notional input tax credit shall not exceed the output tax payable on the sale of used or second hand vehicle by the VAT dealer].

(4) (a) Where any VAT dealer buys and sells the goods in the same form, the input tax credit can be claimed fully in respect of all the taxable goods purchased for every tax period excluding the tax paid on the purchase of any goods mentioned in sub-rule (2). Such VAT dealer is required to make a declaration in Form VAT 200D for every tax period along with tax return.

(b) Where any common inputs like packing material are used commonly for sales of taxable and exempt goods (goods in Schedule I), the VAT dealer shall repay input tax related to exempt element of common inputs after making adjustment in the tax return for March by filing Form VAT 200B for the period of twelve months ending March. In Form VAT 200B, the eligible input tax credit shall be calculated by applying the formula :—

$$A \times \frac{B}{C}$$

Where,

A is the total amount of input tax for common inputs for each tax rate excluding the tax paid on the purchase of any goods mentioned in sub-rule (2).

B is the sales turnover of taxable goods including zero-rated sales.

C is the “total turnover” including sales of exempt goods.

(c) This sub-rule is not applicable if the VAT dealer is making exempt transactions.

(5) (a) Where the value of taxable sales is 95% or more of the total value for that tax period, the VAT dealer may claim credit for the full amount of input tax paid on purchases;

(b) where the value of taxable sales is 5% or less of the total value, the VAT dealer shall not be eligible to claim input tax credit for that tax period;

(c) such a VAT dealer covered under clause (a) and (b) above, shall make an adjustment in the month of March for the 12 month period ending with March on Form VAT 200B. In the Form VAT 200B, the eligible input tax credit shall be calculated by applying the formula $A \times B/C$. The excess input credit claimed shall be paid back or the balance input credit eligible can be claimed in the tax return for March;

(d) this sub-rule is not applicable if the VAT dealer is making exempt transactions.

(6) Where any VAT dealer is able to establish that specific inputs are meant for specific output, the input tax credit can be claimed separately for taxable goods. For the common inputs, such VAT dealer can claim input tax credit by applying the formula :—

$$A \times \frac{B}{C}$$

for the common inputs used for taxable goods, exempt goods (goods in Schedule I) and exempt transactions :

Provided the VAT dealer furnishes an additional return in Form VAT 200A for each tax period for adjustment of input tax credit and also makes an adjustment for a period of 12 months ending March every year by filing a return in Form VAT 200B.

(7) Where a VAT dealer is making taxable sales and sales of exempt goods (goods in Schedule I) for a tax period and inputs are common for both, the amount which can be claimed as input tax credit for the purchases of the goods at each tax rate shall be calculated by the formula :—

$$A \times \frac{B}{C}$$

Provided the VAT dealer furnishes an additional return in Form VAT 200A for each tax period for adjustment of input tax credit and also makes an adjustment for a period of 12 months ending March every year by filing a return in Form VAT 200B.

(8) (a) Where a VAT dealer is making sales of taxable goods and also exempt transactions of taxable goods in a tax period, for the purchases of goods taxed at 12.5%, the input tax to the extent of 8.5% portion can be fully claimed in the same tax period;

(b) In respect of purchases of goods taxable at 1%, 4% and for the 4% tax portion in respect of goods taxable at 12.5%, the VAT dealer shall apply the formula :—

for each tax period :

Provided the VAT dealer furnishes an additional return in Form VAT 200A for each tax period for adjustment of input tax credit and also makes an adjustment for a period of 12 months ending March every year by filing a return in Form VAT 200B.

(9) (a) Where a VAT dealer is making sales of taxable goods, exempt sales (goods in Schedule I) and also exempt transaction of taxable goods in a tax period, for the purchases of goods taxed at 12.5%, the input tax to the extent of 8.5% portion can be fully claimed in the same tax period.

(b) In respect of purchases of goods taxable at 1%, 4% and for the 4% tax portion in respect of goods taxable at 12.5%, the VAT dealer shall apply the formula :

$$A \times \frac{B}{C}$$

for each tax period :

Provided the VAT dealer furnishes an additional return in Form VAT 200A for each tax period for adjustment of input tax credit and also makes an adjustment for a period of 12 months ending March every year by filing a return in Form VAT 200B.

(10) (a) In the case of a VAT dealer filing Form VAT 200B, the excess input credit claimed shall be paid back or the balance input credit eligible can be claimed in the tax return for March.

(b) For the purpose of this rule, the words A, B and C in the formula :—

$$A \times \frac{B}{C}$$

shall carry the following meaning subject to clause (c) below :—

A is the total amount of input tax for common inputs for each tax rate for the tax period; excluding the tax paid on the purchases of any goods mentioned in sub-rule (2);

B is the “taxable turnover” as defined under the Act for the tax period, which shall include zero rated sales of any goods — inter-State sales, exports and deemed exports;

C is the “total turnover” as defined under the Act :

Both the values of B and C shall not include :

- (i) purchase price of goods taxable under section 4 (4);
 - (ii) transactions falling under section 5 (2), (import) section 6 (2) of the CST Act, 1965;
 - (iii) value of transfer of business as a whole.
- (c) Where a VAT dealer makes exempt transactions for the calculation of input tax credit in excess of input tax of 4% for 12.5% rate goods, “the value of B” shall include the value of the goods transferred outside the State otherwise than by way of sale (transaction falling under section 6 (a) of CST Act 1956).
- (d) For the purpose of sub-rules from (4) to (9) of this rule, the value of A is the amount of input tax relating to common inputs for each tax rate, B is the taxable turnover and C is the total turnover. For the purpose of Form VAT 200A, the value of A, B and C would be for that tax period whereas for the purpose of Form VAT 200B, the values of A, B and C would be the values for the period of 12 months ending March including March.
- (e) Any VAT dealer opting for any method of input tax credit calculation specified from sub-rule (5) to sub-rule (9) shall be required to be under only one method for the 12 months period ending March. The method of adjustment to be made in the return for March shall be on the basis of latest option exercised by the dealer upto March.

(11) The Deputy Commissioner concerned may impose any conditions or a particular method for a VAT dealer for the appointment of input tax credit where the VAT dealer makes taxable and exempt sales and/or exempt transactions.

(12) Where a VAT dealer opts to pay tax by way of composition or where a VAT dealer is exempt under Rule 17 (2) (j), such dealer shall furnish Form VAT 200E along with Form VAT 200 for each tax period. Such VAT dealers shall calculate for each tax period the eligible input tax credit by excluding the turnover or value relating to composition/exemption in Form VAT 200E. In addition the VAT dealer shall furnish an adjustment return in Form VAT 200F for the month of March for a period of 12 months ending March making an adjustment of input tax credit in the Form VAT 200F.

ILLUSTRATIONS FOR RULE 20

1. VAT dealers following sub-rule (3) of Rule 20 : (only taxable sales)

TYR, a VAT dealer is dealing in sales of Readymade garments and Footwear which are taxable at 4% and 12.5% respectively under the provisions of the Act. TYR is not dealing in sales of any exempt goods. TYR also purchases packing material and certain other goods required for business. The procedure for claiming input tax credit for a month is illustrated below :—

PURCHASE (INPUT)			SALES (OUTPUT)
Rate of tax	Turnover (Rs.)	VAT Paid (Rs.)	Turnover (Rs.)	VAT Payable (Rs.)
4% Goods (Readymade garments & Packing material)	100000	4000	60000	2400
12.5% Goods (Footwear & other goods)	200000	25000	220000	27500
Total input tax		29000	Total output tax	29900

$$\begin{aligned}
 \text{VAT payable} &= \text{Output tax} - \text{Input tax} \\
 &= \text{Rs. } 29,900 - \text{Rs. } 29,000 \\
 &= \text{Rs. } 900
 \end{aligned}$$

Note :— No adjustments need to be carried since the dealer is dealing only in taxable goods.

2. VAT dealers following sub-rule (4) of Rule 20 : (Resellers of taxable goods and exempt goods)

TVK, a super market, registered for VAT is dealing in taxable goods (Soaps, Cosmetics, Foodgrains etc.), and exempt goods (Sugar, milk, vegetables etc.) TVK buys and sells these goods in the same form every month and also purchases packing material and other goods required for his business. For a tax period, TVK can claim input tax credit as under.

PURCHASE (INPUT)			SALES (OUTPUT)
Rate of tax	Turnover (Rs.)	VAT Paid (Rs.)	Turnover (Rs.)	VAT Payable (Rs.)
4% Goods	100000	4000	120000	4800

 \end{aligned}$$

Credit carried over to next month.

Since TVK has availed full input tax credit on common inputs in the monthly returns :—

- (i) the VAT dealer should make declaration in FORM VAT 200D for each tax period indicating the details of sales of taxable goods and exempt goods and also details of common input tax and input tax paid on taxable goods meant for sale and input tax claimed in the monthly return. No adjustments need to be made for every tax period;
- (ii) the dealer is required to submit a return in Form VAT 200B for March to repay input tax related to exempt element of common inputs after making adjustment of input tax credit for the period of twelve months ending March for each tax rate.

At the end of March, the turnovers relating to the last 12 months are as under (Adjustments to be made in Form VAT 200B).

1. Total taxable turnover for 12 months : Rs. 50.00 Lakhs - B
2. Total sales of exempt goods for 12 months : Rs. 10.00 Lakhs
3. Total turnover for : Rs. 60.00 Lakhs - C

2.	Eligible input tax credit	4000	25000
3.	Input tax credit claimed in returns	4800	30000
4.	Balance payable	800	5000
5.	Adjustment	Pay this amount by including 4% output : Box in Form VAT 200 for March	Pay this amount by including 12.5% output : Box in Form VAT 200 for March

3. VAT dealer following sub-rule (5) of Rule 20 : (Taxable goods & sales of exempt goods lesser values - Manufacturers or Resellers)

AMD, a rice miller, registered for VAT is engaged in converting Paddy into rice and selling the same alongwith other by products. AMD is not having any consignment sales or branch transfers. For a tax period, AMD can claim input tax credit as under :

PURCHASE (INPUT)			SALES (OUTPUT)
Rate of tax	Turnover (Rs.)	VAT Paid (Rs.)	Turnover (Rs.)	VAT Payable (Rs.)
4% Goods (Paddy from other traders & gunnies)	100000	4000	150000 (Rice, broken rice bran)	6000
12.5% Goods (Machinery items)	10000	1250	NIL	NIL
Exempt goods (Paddy husk)	NIL	NIL	1000	NIL
Total input tax		5250	Total output tax	6000

 &= \text{Rs. 6,000} - \text{Rs. 5,250} \\
 &= \text{Rs. 750}
 \end{aligned}$$

Since the value of taxable goods is more than 95% of the total sale value, AMD can claim full amount of input tax credit. However, if the value of taxable sales is less than 5% of the total sale value, the VAT dealer should not claim input tax credit for that tax period.

Further, AMD is required to make an adjustment of input tax credit for each tax rate in the month of March for the 12 month period ending March on Form VAT 200B.

At the end of March, the turnovers relating to last 12 months are illustrated below :— (Adjustments to be made on Form VAT 200B)

1. Total taxable turnover for 12 months : Rs. 80.00 lakhs - B
2. Total sales of exempt goods for 12 months : Rs. 50,000
3. Total turnover for 12 months : Rs. 80.50 lakhs - C
4. Input tax paid & claimed for 12 months on 4% rate goods : Rs. 48,000 - A for 4%
5. Input tax paid & claimed for 12 months on 12.5% rate goods : Rs. 15,000 - A for 12.5% goods

5.	Adjustment	Pay this amount by including 4% output : Box in Form VAT 200 for March	Pay this amount by including 12.5% output : Box in Form VAT 200 for March

4. VAT dealer following sub-rule (6) of Rule 20 : (Specific inputs to specific outputs)

USL, a VAT dealer is engaged in manufacturing of various products. The dealer is manufacturing two separate products (product x and product y) wherein the dealer always makes taxable sales of product x and the product y is meant for both taxable sales and stock transfers. The dealer maintains separate records indicating specific inputs required for specific outputs. For a tax period, the method and procedure for arriving at eligible input tax credit is illustrated below :—

PURCHASE (INPUT)			SALES (OUTPUT)
Rate of tax	Turnover (Rs.)	VAT Paid (Rs.)	Turnover (Rs.)	VAT Payable (Rs.)
4% goods for taxable goods	2,00,000	8,000	1,50,000 (Product 'x')	6,000
4% goods common for taxable sales & exempt transactions	4,00,000	16,000	3,00,000 (Product 'x' & 'y')	12,000

PURCHASE (INPUT)			SALES (OUTPUT)
Rate of tax	Turnover (Rs.)	VAT Paid (Rs.)	Turnover (Rs.)	VAT Payable (Rs.)
12.5% goods specific to taxable sales	32,000	4,000	NIL	NIL
12.5% goods common for taxable sales and exempt transactions	40,000	5,000	NIL	NIL
Exempt transactions	NIL	NIL	1,50,000 (Product 'y')	NIL
Total Input tax		33,000	Total Output tax	18,000

USL is using specific inputs for specific taxable sales and certain common inputs meant for both taxable sales and exempt transactions. Hence, USL is eligible to claim full input tax credit for VAT paid on specific inputs for each tax period and for the VAT paid on common inputs, the eligible input tax credit should be arrived for each tax period by applying calculation $A \times B/C$ where;

- A = Common input tax for the tax period for each tax rate
- B = Taxable turnover
- C = Total turnover
(including value of exempt transactions)

Sl. No.	Description	4% rate of goods	Description	12.5% rate of goods
1.	Common input tax paid in the tax period	16,000	Common input tax paid in the tax period	5,000

Sl. No.	Description	4% rate of goods	Description	12.5% rate of goods
2.	Apply calculation	16000×4.50 lakhs	8.5% portion (tax x 8.5/12.5)	3,400
3.	Eligible input tax	6.00 lakhs 12,000	4% portion (tax 4% / 12.5%) Eligible input tax in 4% portion out of 12.5% rate paid. Eligible input tax credit for 12.5% rate related to common inputs	1,600 1600×4.50 lakhs 6.00 lakhs = Rs. 1200 3400 + 1200 = 4600

Eligible input tax credit for common inputs	:	Rs. 12,000 (4%) + Rs. 4600 (12.5%)
	:	Rs. 16,600/-
Eligible input tax credit for Specific inputs	:	Rs. 8,000 (4%) + Rs. 4000 (12.5%)
	:	Rs. 12,000/-
Total eligible input tax credit for the tax period	:	Rs. 12,000 + Rs. 16,600
	:	Rs. 28,600/-
VAT payable / Credit carried over	:	Output tax - Input tax
	=	Rs. 18,000 - Rs. 28,600
	=	(+) 10,600 credit carried over to next period

Note :— (1) USL should submit Form VAT 200A every month, making adjustment of input tax credit to arrive and claim eligible input tax credit for that tax period for each rate.

(2) Further, USL should also carry out adjustment of input tax credit for each tax rate for a period of 12 months ending March and submit such details in Form VAT 200B.

(3) Such adjustment shall be made as below :—

- (a) any excess claimed in the monthly VAT returns shall be paid back in the return for March by adding it to the appropriate box in the output column for each tax rate;
- (b) any balance credit eligible in the monthly returns shall be claimed in the return for March by adding it to the appropriate box in the input column for each tax rate.

5. VAT dealer following sub-rule of Rule 20 :— (Manufacturing & selling taxable goods and exempt goods).

KHT, a dairy plant is registered for VAT and engaged in production and sales of both taxable goods and exempt goods. The procedure for claiming input tax credit for a month is shown below :—

PURCHASE (INPUT)			SALES (OUTPUT)
Rate of tax	Turnover (Rs.)	VAT Paid (Rs.)	Turnover (Rs.)	VAT Payable (Rs.)
4% rate goods common for taxable and exempted goods	200000	8000	100000	4000
12.5% rate common for both taxable and exempt goods	60000	7500	NIL	NIL
Exempt goods	500000	NIL	700000	NIL
Total Input tax		15,500	Total Output tax	4000

VAT payable = Output - Input tax (eligible)

To arrive at eligible input tax credit, the VAT dealer should make calculation A x B/C in Form VAT 200A for the tax period for each tax rate.

A = Input tax paid for each tax rate

B = Taxable turnover

C = Total turnover (Taxable turnover + turnover of sales of exempt goods)

Sl. No.	Description	4% rate of goods	12.5% rate of goods	Total eligible
1.	Input tax paid in the tax period	8000	7500	NIL
2.	Apply calculation	$8000 \times \frac{100000}{800000}$	$7500 \times \frac{100000}{800000}$	NIL
3.	Eligible input tax	1000	938	1938

VAT payable in the tax period = Rs. 4000 - Rs. 1938

= Rs. 2062

Note :— (1) KHT should submit Form VAT 200A every month, making adjustment of input tax credit to arrive and claim eligible input tax credit for that tax period.

(2) Further, KHT should also carry out adjustment of input tax credit for each tax rate for a period of twelve months ending March and submit such details in Form VAT 200B.

(3) Such adjustment shall be made as below :—

(a) any excess claimed in the monthly VAT returns shall be paid back in the return for March by adding it to the appropriate box in the output column for each tax rate;

- (b) any balance credit eligible in the monthly returns shall be claimed in the return for March by adding it to the appropriate box in the input column for each tax rate.

6. VAT dealer following sub-rule (8) of Rule 20 : (Taxable goods & exempt transactions of taxable goods)

SKM, a VAT dealer is engaged in manufacture and sale of Cement. The dealer also despatches the goods on consignment basis to other States. There are no sales of exempt goods. For a tax period, the purchases and sales effected by the dealer are illustrated below indicating method and procedure to claim input tax credit.

PURCHASE (INPUT)			SALES (OUTPUT)
Rate of tax	Turnover (Rs.)	VAT Paid (Rs.)	Turnover (Rs.)	VAT Payable (Rs.)
4% Goods	6000000	240000	NIL	NIL
12.5% Goods	5000000	625000	500.00 lakhs	6250000
Exempt transactions	NIL	NIL	50.00 lakhs	NIL
Total input tax		865000	Total output tax	6250000

Since the VAT dealer is using the inputs common for both taxable sales and exempt transactions, SKM should arrive at eligible input tax credit for each tax rate for the tax period to claim in the monthly return. For this purpose, RAS should calculate eligible input tax credit in Form VAT 200A for the tax period by applying $A \times B/C$, where;

- A = Input tax paid for each tax rate
B = Taxable turnover
C = Total turnover
 (Taxable turnover + value of exempt transactions)

Sl. No.	Description	4% rate of goods	Description	12.5% rate of goods
1.	Input tax paid in the tax period	240000	Input tax paid in the tax period	625000
2.	Apply calculation	240000×500.00 550.00 lakhs	8.5% portion (tax \times 8.5/12.5)	425000 (*)
3.	Eligible input tax	218182	4% portion (tax 4%/12.5%) Apply calculation for 4% portion Eligible input tax in 12.5% rate	200000 200000×500 550 lakhs = Rs. 181818.00 425000 + 181818 = 606818

(*) Input tax to the extent of 8.5% portion can be fully claimed in the same tax period.

Total eligible input tax credit	=	Rs. 218182 + Rs. 606818
For the tax period	=	Rs. 825000
VAT payable for the tax period	=	Output tax - Input tax (eligible)
	=	Rs. 6250000 - 825000
	=	Rs. 5425000/-

Note :— (1) SKM should submit Form VAT 200A every month, making Adjustment of input tax credit to arrive at and claim eligible Input tax credit for that tax period.

(2) Further, SKM should also carry out adjustment of input tax credit for each tax rate for a period of 12 months ending March and submit such details in Form VAT 200B.

(3) Such adjustment shall be made as below :—

(a) any excess claimed in the monthly VAT returns shall be paid back in the return for March by adding it to the appropriate box in the output column for each tax rate;

- (b) any balance credit eligible in the monthly returns shall be claimed in the return for March by adding it to the appropriate box in the input column for each tax rate.

7. VAT dealer following sub-rule (9) of Rule 20 : (Taxable sales, sales of exempt goods and exempt transactions of taxable goods)

IAK, a VAT dealer is engaged in manufacture of Cotton yarn and cloth. The dealer effects stock transfer of cotton yarn to other States besides making sales of Cotton yarn and exempt goods i.e., Cloth. The method and procedure to arrive at and claim eligible input tax for a tax period is illustrated below :—

PURCHASE (INPUT)			SALES (OUTPUT)
Rate of tax	Turnover (Rs.)	VAT Paid (Rs.)	Turnover (Rs.)	VAT Payable (Rs.)
4% Goods	100.00 lakhs	4,00,000	100.00 lakhs	400000
12.5% Goods	800000	1,00,000	NIL	NIL
Exempt goods	NIL	NIL	50.00 lakhs	NIL
Exempt transactions	NIL	NIL	50.00 lakhs (Stock transfers of cotton yarn)	NIL
Total input tax		5,00,000	Total output tax	4,00,000

IAK is using common inputs for sales of taxable goods, sales of exempt goods and for the values of exempt transactions. The dealer should arrive at eligible input tax credit for each tax rate for the tax period in Form 200A by applying $A \times B/C$ calculation, where :

$$A = \text{Input tax paid for each tax rate}$$

- B = Taxable turnover
- C = Total turnover
(Taxable turnover + Sales of exempt Goods + value of exempt transactions)

Sl. No.	Description	4% rate of goods	Description	12.5% rate of goods
1.	Input tax paid in the tax period	400000	Input tax paid in the tax period	100000
2.	Apply calculation	$\frac{400000 \times 500\text{lakhs}}{2,00,00,000}$	8.5% portion (tax x 8.5/12.5)	68000
3.	Eligible input tax	200000	4% portion (tax 4%/12.5%) Eligible input tax in 4% portion out of 12.5% rate paid — arrive by applying calculation Eligible input tax in 12.5% rate goods.	32000 $\frac{32000 \times 100\text{lakhs}}{200 \text{ lakhs}}$ = Rs. 16,000 68000 + 16000 = 84000

Total eligible input tax credit for the period : Rs. 200000 + Rs. 84000
: Rs. 284000/-

VAT payable for the tax period : Output tax - Input tax (eligible)
: Rs. 400000 - Rs. 284000
: Rs. 116000/-

Note :— (1) IAK should submit Form VAT 200A every month, making adjustment of input tax credit to arrive at and claim eligible output tax credit for that tax period for each rate.

(2) Further, IAK should also carry out adjustment of input tax credit for each tax rate for a period of 12 months ending March and submit such details in Form VAT 200B.

(3) Such adjustment shall be made as below :—

- (a) any excess claimed in the monthly VAT returns shall be paid back in the return for March by adding it to the appropriate box in the input column for each tax rate;
- (b) any balance credit eligible in the monthly returns shall be claimed in the return for March by adding it to the appropriate box in the input column for each tax rate.

21. Calculation of Turnover Tax Payable (TOT).— (a) The TOT payable by a TOT dealer shall be calculated by applying the rate of TOT to the taxable turnover.

- (b) In cases where the taxable turnover of a dealer exceeds Rupees five lakh in the preceding twelve months and he registers for TOT within the prescribed time, the liability for TOT shall be from the effective date of registration.

22. Calculation of VAT payable on sales of goods predominantly to non-VAT dealers and consumers.— (1) A VAT dealer selling goods liable to VAT shall maintain the records and calculate VAT payable in the following manner namely :—

- (a) a separate record of all goods received, which are exempt or liable to VAT at any rate other than the standard rate;
- (b) in the case of sales predominantly to non-VAT dealers and consumers, a daily record of the gross receipts of goods taxable at each tax rate and the value of exempt goods sold;
- (c) the VAT due for payment shall be calculated by applying the tax fraction to the aggregate of daily gross receipts for the month at each tax rate. The total value of taxable sales for each tax rate shall be calculated by deducting the tax from the aggregate of daily gross receipts for each month;

- (d) copies of any tax invoices issued to VAT dealers.

CHAPTER - IV

RETURNS, PAYMENTS & ASSESSMENTS

23. Tax Returns.— (1) A return to be filed by a VAT dealer under section 20 shall be on form VAT 200 and it shall be filed within 20 days after the end of the tax period. The returns shall be completed in duplicate and one copy with the proof of receipt shall be retained by the VAT dealer :

¹[Provided that the return for the month of March shall be filed on or before 7th April].

(2) A return to be filed by a TOT dealer under section 20 shall be on Form TOT 007 and it shall be filed within 30 days after the end of the calendar quarter.

(3) In the case of a VAT dealer having more than one place of business all returns prescribed by these rules shall be submitted by the head office of the business in the State and shall include the total value of all sales of all the branches in the State of such VAT dealer.

(4) Where the registration of a VAT dealer or TOT dealer is cancelled, a final return on Form VAT 200C or TOT 007 as the case may be shall be filed within fifteen days of the effective date of cancellation of registration.

(5) If there is a change in the rate of tax during a tax period, a separate return in respect of each portion of the tax period showing the application of different rates of tax shall be furnished.

(6) (a) If any VAT dealer having furnished a return on Form VAT 200 finds any omission or incorrect information therein, other than as a result of an inspection or receipt of any other information or evidence by the authority prescribed, he shall submit an application on Form VAT 213 within a period of six months from the end of the relevant tax period.

1. Added by G.O.Ms. No. 317, Rev. (CT-II), dt. 14-03-2006.

- (b) On receipt of Form VAT 213 in the case of an underdeclaration, a Form VAT 307 shall be issued for the under-declared tax and the interest due on the late payment. In the case of an over-declaration Form VAT 308 shall be issued.

(7) (a) In the case of a casual trader a declaration on Form CAT 001 shall be filed within twenty four hours of his arrival in any place in the State before the authority prescribed indicating the nature of goods and their value in which he intends to deal and the period for which he intends to conduct his business.

- (b) The casual trader shall file a final declaration in Form CAT 002 before the authority prescribed on the last day on which he intends to leave the place along with payment of the tax due on the taxable turnover.

(8) Every VAT dealer who claims input tax credit in respect of certain goods or any specific category of VAT dealers, as notified by the Commissioner or any other VAT dealer as required by the Deputy Commissioner concerned shall submit a return in Form VAT 225 in addition to the return on Form 200, containing the details of purchases made from other VAT dealers in the State for each tax period or for any other period as may be notified by the Commissioner or as required by the Deputy Commissioner concerned.

24. Tax payment.— ¹[(1) In the case of a VAT dealer, the tax declared as due on Form VAT-200, shall be paid not later than fifteen days after the end of the tax period if the payment is by way of cheque and not later than twenty days after the end of the tax period if the payment is by way of demand draft or bankers cheque or by way of remittance into the Treasury ²[or by Electronic Funds

(2) In the case of a TOT dealer, the tax declared as due on Form TOT 007, shall be paid not later than thirty days after the end of the calendar quarter.

(3) The return in Form VAT 200 of Form TOT 007 shall be accompanied by a receipt from Government treasury or a crossed demand draft or a crossed cheque drawn on the local bank in the State in favour of the authority prescribed. A local bank for this purpose shall be a bank located at the place of business declared for registration.

(4) Where any VAT dealer or TOT dealer submits a Form VAT 200 or Form 007 without a receipt from Government treasury or demand draft or a cheque for the full amount of tax payable, the authority prescribed shall send a notice on Form VAT 202 or TOT 012 to the VAT dealer or to the TOT dealer for the tax under – paid. Such notice shall be deemed to be an assessment-cum-demand notice and the VAT dealer or TOT dealer shall pay the sum specified in the notice within the time specified therein.

(5) Where any dealer has been permitted to pay tax or any other amount by way of instalments, the following conditions shall apply :—

- (a) the dealer shall not default payment of any other taxes or any other amount due under the Act subsequent to the granting of instalments;
- (b) in the event of any default, the order granting instalments shall become infructuous unless on application it is specifically restored by the Deputy Commissioner;
- (c) any other conditions as may be specified in the order.

(6) Where any VAT dealer has paid any Entry Tax and intence to adjust such amount against VAT payable by him as specified in sub-section (5) of section 22, he shall make a declaration on Form 503 and file alongwith Form VAT 200 for the Tax period.

1. Proviso added by G.O.Ms. No. 317, Rev. (CT-II), dt. 14-03-2006.

25. Assessments.— (1) Where a VAT dealer fails to file a VAT return as prescribed under section 20, the authority prescribed shall assess unilaterally the tax payable. The authority prescribed shall serve upon the VAT dealer a notice of the tax assessed and the penalty due on Form VAT 204. The VAT dealer shall pay the sum within the time and the manner specified on the form or shall file the return outstanding. If the return is filed the unilateral assessment shall be withdrawn, without prejudice to the penalty under sub-section (3) of section 50 and interest due for late payment.

(2) (a) A VAT unilateral assessment shall be made by totalling the tax declared on the tax returns or paid by way of assessment during the previous twelve months and by dividing the amount by twelve to arrive at an average monthly liability for the previous twelve months. The average shall be compared with the tax due declared on the last return filed. The higher figure of the two shall be used for arriving at the tax for the purpose of assessment. A penalty of fifty percent (50%) of that sum shall be levied.

- (b) In the case of a VAT dealer who has not been registered for a period of twelve months, the amount declared in Box 16 (b) of Form VAT 100 shall be divided by twelve to provide the basis for the calculation of the average taxable turnover. The standard rate of tax shall be applied to this amount to calculate the tax liability. A penalty of fifty percent (50%) of that sum shall be levied. In the case of a deemed registration under sub-rule (4) of Rule 4, the total turnover declared on Form VAT 100 shall be divided by twelve to provide the basis for the calculation of the taxable turnover.
- (c) Where a credit return is filed in the previous twelve months with the claim of credit carried forward in any tax period, the credit carried forward shall be ignored for the calculation. Where a return is filed in the previous twelve months with the claim of refund in any tax period, the refund amount shall be deducted from the total tax declared on the returns for calculation of the taxable turnover under clause (a) or (b).

- (d) Where in the previous twelve months, credit or refund is claimed in all the returns or a credit balance is arrived at, no unilateral assessment shall be made.

(3) Where a TOT dealer fails to file a return as prescribed under section 20, the authority prescribed shall assess the tax payable unilaterally. The authority shall serve upon the TOT dealer a notice of the tax assessed and a notice of the penalty due on Form TOT 010. The TOT dealer shall pay the sum within the time and manner specified on the form or file the return outstanding. If the return is filed the unilateral assessment shall be withdrawn without prejudice to the penalty under sub-section (3) of section 50 and interest due for late payment.

(4) (a) TOT unilateral assessment shall be calculated by totaling the tax declared on TOT returns or demanded and/or paid by way of assessment for the previous twelve months. This sum shall be divided by four to provide an average quarterly TOT liability. A penalty of fifty percent (50%) of that sum shall be levied.

- (b) In the case of a TOT dealer who has not been registered for a period of twelve months the amount declared in Box fourteen of Form TOT 001 shall be divided by four to arrive at the average taxable turnover. The turnover tax rate shall be applied to this amount to calculate the TOT liability. A penalty of fifty percent (50%) of that sum shall be levied.

- (c) In the case of a TOT dealer registered under the provisions of sub-section 8 of section 17, the gross turnover declared for the year ending 31st of March 2005 under the Andhra Pradesh General Sales Tax, 1957 shall be divided by four to arrive at the average taxable turnover for the purpose of this rule.

(5) Where any VAT return filed by the VAT dealer appears to the authority prescribed to be incorrect or incomplete that authority prescribed shall assess the tax payable to the best of his judgment on Form VAT 305 after affording a reasonable opportunity to the dealer in Form VAT 305A. He shall serve upon the VAT dealer an order of the tax assessed, the penalty and interest due on Form VAT 305. The VAT dealer shall pay the sum within the time and manner specified on the notice.

(6) Where any TOT return filed by the TOT dealer appears to the authority prescribed to be incorrect or incomplete that authority shall assess the tax payable to the best of his judgment on Form TOT 025 after affording reasonable opportunity to the dealer on Form TOT 025A. He shall serve upon the TOT dealer an order of the tax assessed, the penalty levied and interest due on Form TOT 025. The TOT dealer shall pay the sum within the time and manner specified on the notice.

(7) Where a dealer receives any amount due to price variations, which have not been included in the return filed for that tax period, he shall include the additional amount received and tax calculated at the rate applicable in the return to be filed in the period in which the additional amounts are received.

(8) (a) For the purpose of section 53, the tax under declared in respect of input tax means the excess of input tax claimed over and above the input tax actually entitled to be claimed in the return for a particular tax period.

(b) The tax under declared in respect of output tax means the difference between output tax actually chargeable and the output tax declared in the return for a particular tax period.

(c) In respect of a TOT dealer the tax under declared means the difference between the tax declared on Form TOT 007 and the tax actually due by the dealer for the period.

(9) Where any sales tax credit claimed under Rule 37 is found to be in excess of the amount actually entitled, such amount shall be recovered along with interest by assessing the VAT dealer.

Illustration

(a) VKM, a VAT dealer filed a return for tax period declaring input tax as Rs. 10000/- and output tax as Rs. 5000/- and the net excess tax of Rs. 5000/- was carried over to the next tax period. On verification by the authority prescribed after 6 months, the eligible input tax credit is found to be Rs. 8000/-. There was no variation in output tax. The tax under-declared in respect of input tax is Rs. 2000/- (Rs. 10000 – Rs. 8000/-). The percentage of under-declaration of tax is twenty five percent (25%) ($2000 \times 100/8000$). Accordingly under-declared tax of Rs. 2000/- along with penalty of Rs. 500/- i.e. twenty five percent (25%) and interest at the rate of 1% for the period i.e. six months of delay is payable.

- (b) A VAT dealer filing a return declared input tax as Rs. 23000/- and output tax as Rs. 77000/- and net tax of Rs. 54000/- was paid along with the return. On verification by the authority prescribed after four months it was found that there is no variation in the eligible input tax declared in the return. However, the output tax chargeable for that tax period was found to be Rs. 80000/- as against the declared output tax of Rs. 77000/-. The tax under declared in respect of output tax is Rs. 3000/- (i.e. Rs. 80000 – Rs. 77000). The percentage of under-declaration is 3.8% ($3000 \times 100/80000$). Now the dealer is liable to pay the under-declared tax of Rs. 3000/- along with penalty of Rs. 300/- i.e. 10% and interest at the rate of 1% for the delayed period of 4 months.

- (iii) Evidence of export in the form of transport documentation i.e. bill of lading, air way bill or a like document.

(7) A VAT dealer making sale of goods in the course of inter-State trade or commerce falling under section 3 of the Central Sales Tax Act, 1956 may adjust any excess credit available under the Act against any tax payable under the Central Sales Tax Act, 1956 for the same tax period.

(8) (a) Where the VAT dealer makes a claim under section 38, such refund shall be made within a period of ninety days of the date the return was due or the date the return is filed whichever is later.

(b) Where the VAT dealer fails to produce accounts or records required by the authority prescribed within seven days of date of issue of the notice, the time limit specified in clause (a) shall not apply.

(c) Where the VAT dealer has produced accounts or records within the prescribed time limit, interest shall be payable at the rate of one percent (1%) per month from the date after the expiry of the ninety days till the date of actual refund.

The interest in respect of part of month shall be computed proportionately and for this purpose, month shall mean a period of thirty days.

(9) (a) Where any refund is due to a VAT dealer under section 39, a notice in Form VAT 351 shall be issued by the authority prescribed proposing either adjustment of such refund against any tax, interest, penalty and any amount due under the Act outstanding against such dealer or notifying the refund within fifteen days of date of receipt of the order specified in section 39.

(b) The VAT dealer, on receipt of such Form, shall confirm the claim of refund within fifteen days of receipt by returning Form VAT 352.

(c) On after receipt of confirmation from the VAT dealer, the authority prescribed shall either adjust or refund the amount as the case may be.

(d) The stipulated time of ninety days under section 39 shall include the period of process specified under clauses (a), (b) and (c).

(e) Where the refund is not made within ninety days, the interest shall be payable at the rate of one percent (1%) per month from the date after the expiry of the said ninety days till the date of actual refund.

The interest in respect of part of month shall be computed proportionately and for this purpose, month shall mean a period of thirty days.

(10) (a) Where any turnover tax has been levied and collected under the Act in respect of sale inside the State of any declared goods specified in section 14 of the Central Sales Tax Act, 1956 and such goods are subsequently sold by a VAT dealer in the course of inter-State trade or commerce, the turnover tax so levied and collected shall be refunded to such VAT dealer in the manner and subject to the conditions specified in clauses (b) to (e) of this sub-rule :

Provided that the refund shall not be made unless the tax payable under the Central Sales Tax Act, 1956 is paid.

- (b) The refund of tax referred to in clause (a) shall be made to the VAT dealer who effected the first sale in the course of inter-State trade or commerce.
- (c) Every application for such refund under this rule shall be filed by the VAT dealer claiming refund in Form VAT 360 before the authority prescribed having jurisdiction over the place of business of the VAT dealer within a period of ninety days from the date of payment of tax due under the Central Sales Tax Act, 1956 in respect of declared goods specified under clause (a) above :

Provided that the authority prescribed may condone for reasons to be recorded in writing, any delay in filing of such application.

- (d) The burden of proving that a VAT dealer is entitled to such refund shall be on the VAT dealer claiming such refund.
- (e) The authority prescribed shall, after making such enquiry as he considers necessary, refund without interest the turnover tax levied and collected within ninety days from the date of receipt of application on Form VAT 360 :

Provided that the authority prescribed shall first adjust the amount of such refund towards tax, penalty, interest or any amount due from the VAT dealer for any tax period and then refund the balance if any.

(11) The claim for refund under sub-section (3) of section 15 of the Act shall be made on Form 510 along with the invoices in original. The refund in such cases shall be made within a period of 45 days from the date of submission of Form 510.

(12) The claim for refund under sub-section (5) of section 38 of the Act shall be made on Form 510A, along with the copies of invoices, within 45 days from the end of the month during which the goods are purchased, to the Commissioner or to any other officer in Commissioner. The refund in such cases shall be made within a period of 45 days from the date of the claim.

CHAPTER - VIII

TRANSFER OF A BUSINESS

36. Conditions for Transfer of a Business.— The transfer of a business from one VAT dealer to another VAT dealer is exempt from VAT subject to the following conditions, namely :—

- (a) the business must be transferred as an on going concern and continue trading under the new ownership;
- (b) the VAT dealer transferring the business shall notify the authority prescribed of the transfer of the business within ten days of the date of the transfer;
- (c) the VAT dealer transferring the business shall apply for cancellation of his registration, if warranted and shall comply with the provisions of Rule 14;
- (d) the VAT dealer acquiring the business shall account for tax on the stock and assets acquired, at the time of their sale;
- (e) the VAT dealer acquiring the business shall retain all the tax records related to that business for a period of not less than six years as specified in sub-section (4) of section 42 after the end of the year in which the business was acquired.

CHAPTER - IXCREDIT FOR TAX PAID ON STOCK ON HAND AT THE COMMENCEMENT OF THE ACT

37. Conditions for the Relief of Sales Tax at the Commencement of the Act.— (1) On the first day of the commencement of the Act, if a VAT dealer has in stock any goods in which sales tax has been paid under the Andhra Pradesh General Sales Tax Act, 1957, that VAT dealer shall be entitled to claim a credit of sales tax excluding turnover tax paid under the said Act for such goods which were purchased from the 1st day of April 2004 to the 31st day of March 2005.

- (2) The conditions for claiming sales tax credit shall be :—
- (a) the dealer claiming credit must be registered for VAT on the date of commencement of the Act;
 - (b) the claim for credit shall be on Form VAT 115;
 - (c) where the goods in stock are listed in Schedule I or Schedule VI to the Act, no sales tax credit shall be allowed;
 - (d) the sales tax credit allowed shall be subject to the conditions in Rule 20;
 - (e) a VAT dealer claiming sales tax credit shall make an inventory of all goods on hand on the date of commencement of the Act on which a sales tax credit is claimed within a period of seven days of the commencement of the Act;
 - (f) (i) where documentary evidence of sales tax charged is available, the sales tax charged shall be used as the basis for claiming the credit. In case of goods specified in the Sixth Schedule of the Andhra Pradesh General Sales Tax Act, 1957, the tax paid on the value of the goods shall be arrived by applying the tax fraction, even though tax was not shown separately;
 - (ii) where the documentary evidence specified in clause (i) is not available, the amount that can be claimed as credit shall be based on ninety percent (90%) of purchase value. The tax component which can be claimed as a credit shall be calculated by the use of the tax fraction to this value;

- (iii) where any tax was paid on any goods at the point of purchase by the dealer himself, such tax actually paid shall be eligible for sales tax credit;
- (g) where the goods in stock are listed in sub-rule (2) of Rule 20, no sales tax credit shall be allowed except as provided for under the provisions of that rule;
- (h) a claim for sales tax credit shall be submitted to the authority prescribed within ten days from the date of commencement of the Act. The Deputy Commissioner may, having regard to the circumstances permit the VAT dealer to make the claim after the said ten days but not later than thirty days from the date of commencement of the Act. The approval of the claim for sales tax credit shall be issued on Form VAT 116 not later than forty five days from the date of commencement of the Act;
- (i) the VAT dealer shall keep all documents relating to the claim for credit for a period of four years from the date of commencement of the Act and shall provide such documents to the authority prescribed for audit if required.

¹[Whenever a VAT dealer is liable to restrict his sales tax credit as per the conditions in Rule 20, he shall submit Form VAT 200-G alongwith the return. Wherever annual adjustment of sales tax credit is to be made, such VAT dealer shall submit Form VAT 200-H alongwith the return for March, 2006].

(3) When a claim under this Rule is approved on Form VAT 116 by the authority prescribed the amount certified as eligible for credit shall be claimed as a credit in six equal instalments. ²[These

4. Commercial Tax Officers, Deputy Commercial Tax Officers and Assistant Commercial Tax Officers.	Assistant Commissioner of the division concerned.

CHAPTER - XI

SEARCH, SEIZURE, CONFISCATION AND ACQUISITION

52. Search as per the procedure prescribed in Cr.P.C. 1973.— (1) Where any officer duly authorised under section 43 conducts a search of any office, shop, shop-cum-residence (residential accommodation) godown, vessel, vehicle, or any other place of business or any premises or place where he has reason to believe that the dealer keeps or is for the time being keeping any goods, accounts, registers or other documents of his business, he shall as far as possible follow the procedure prescribed in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (Central Act 2 of 1974).

(2) If on search, such officer finds any accounts, registers or other documents which he has reason to believe relate to any evasion of tax or other fee due from the dealer under the Act, he may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, seize such accounts, registers, or other documents and shall give the dealer a receipt for the same. The accounts and registers so seized shall not be retained by such officer for more than thirty days at a time without the permission of the next higher authority.

53. Seizure and confiscation of goods.— (1) If any officer authorised under section 43, finds any goods in any office, shop, godown, vehicle, vessel or any other place of business or any other building or place of a dealer which have not been accounted for in the accounts, registers, or other documents maintained in the course of his business, the officer may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, seize such goods. The order of seizure on Form 603 shall specify the description, the quantity and the value of the goods seized. A copy of it shall be served on the dealer or the person in charge of the goods.

(2) Any officer may, if security in cash is furnished to his satisfaction, order release of goods seized to the owner, and if he is not present, to the person in charge of the goods pending further enquiry if necessary. The order of release on Form 604 shall be subject to the condition that if the goods in question are finally confiscated under sub-rule (4), they shall be produced within such time as may be required, failing which, the cash security furnished shall stand forfeited to the State Government without further notice.

(3) In cases not falling under sub-rule (2), if the whole or any part of the goods, seized under sub-rule (1) are of a perishable nature, the officer may sell them or get them sold, in public auction as laid down in sub-rules (8) to (17) :

Provided that the notice of fifteen days laid down in sub-rule (9) below shall not apply to the public auction of goods of perishable nature and in lieu of the same, the officer shall cause adequate publicity through displaying a notice on the notice board of his office.

(4) Any such officer, after making such enquiry as he deems fit and after giving the owner of the goods, if he is ascertained, an opportunity of being heard, may confiscate the whole or any part of the goods seized, if he is satisfied that there is evasion or an attempt to evade tax thereon in any manner whatsoever. If the owner is not ascertained even after the enquiry, the officer shall order confiscation of the goods. A copy of the order of confiscation on Form 605 shall be served on the owner of the goods if he is ascertainable.

(5) The goods confiscated under sub-rule (4) shall be sold in public auction as laid down in sub-rules (8) to (17).

(6) If, on enquiry, under sub-rule (4), it is considered by the officer who seized the goods that confiscation is not warranted in regard to any of the goods seized, or if any order of confiscation is set aside or modified in regard to any goods, on appeal or revision, such goods shall be returned to the owner or any other person authorised by him if they had not be sold in public auction under sub-rule (3) or (5). If they had already been sold in public auction, the proceeds of the sale less the expenses incurred in the sale, if any by the State Government, shall be refunded to the owner of the goods or any other person authorised by him.

(7) In case wherein a confiscation order has been passed in respect of any goods, the owner of which was not ascertainable before the order is passed, such owner of the goods or any other person on his behalf may appear before the officer who ordered the confiscation and satisfy him with relevant records regarding the bonafides of the goods in question and regarding the reasons for his non-appearance earlier. If the officer is satisfied that there has been no evasion or attempt at evasion of tax he may order, for reasons to be recorded in writing, the release of the goods confiscated or if such goods had already been sold and delivered, the refund of the sale proceeds of the goods, less the expenses incurred for safe custody of the goods and other incidental charges. If the officer is not so satisfied, he may after recording reasons therefore, order that the sale under sub-rule (5) shall be proceeded with or that the proceeds of the sale already conducted shall not be refunded, as the case may be.

(8) The officer who detained the goods shall cause to be published in the notice board of his office a list of the goods detained and intended for sale with a notice on Form 606 under his signature, specifying the place where and the date on, and the hour at which the detained goods will be sold in open auction and shall also display a copy of such list and notice in the office of the Commercial Tax Officer having jurisdiction over the place where the goods were detained.

(9) A notice of fifteen days shall be given before the auction is conducted.

(10) Intending bidders shall deposit as earnest money a sum equal to five percent (5%) of the estimated value of the goods.

(11) At the appointed time, the goods shall be put up in one or more lots, as the officer conducting the auction sale may consider necessary and shall be knocked down in favour of the highest bidder, subject to confirmation of the sale by the Commercial Tax Officer having jurisdiction over the place where the goods were detained where the value of the goods auctioned does not exceed one thousand rupees and by any officer not lower in rank than the Deputy Commissioner in other cases.

(12) The earnest money deposited by the unsuccessful bidders shall be refunded to them within three days from the date of auction.

(13) (a) The auction purchasers shall pay to the officer conducting the auction the sale value of the goods in cash immediately after the sale and shall not be permitted to carry away any part of the goods until he has paid in full and until the sale is confirmed by the authority specified in sub-rule (11).

(b) The officer receiving the value of the goods in cash shall issue a receipt on Form 607 to the person making such payment.

(14) Where the purchaser fails to pay the purchase money the earnest money deposited by the defaulting bidder shall be forfeited to the Government and the goods shall be resold in the auction. The procedure prescribed for the first auction shall be followed for conducting the subsequent auction.

(15) If any order directing detention is set aside on appeal or revision, the goods so detained, if they have not been sold in auction, shall be released and if they have been sold, the proceeds thereof shall be paid to the owner of the goods, deducting the expenses incurred from the time of a detention of the goods to the time they were sold in auction.

(16) Any person from whom tax is due shall on application to the officer on Form 608 who conducted the sale, and upon sufficient proof, be paid the sale proceeds specified under sub-rule (13), after deducting the expenses of sale and other incidental charges and the amount of tax due.

(17) The procedure specified in this rule shall apply to give effect to the orders directing refund on appeal of revision.

54. Acquisition of goods.— (1) The powers specified under section 44 shall be exercised with prior approval of the next higher authority, by any officer not below the rank of the Commercial Tax Officer having jurisdiction over the area where the goods are available at the time of initiating proceedings for acquisition of goods.

(2) The goods acquired under section 44 shall be sold in public auction following the procedure laid down in sub-rules (8) to (17) of Rule 53.

(3) Every officer who has acquired the goods under section 44 shall pass orders within fifteen days from the date of such acquisition, sanctioning payment of compensation to the owner of the goods as specified in sub-section (6) of section 44.

CHAPTER - XII

MOVEMENT OF GOODS / GOODS VEHICLES AND CHECKPOSTS

55. Movement of Goods in Goods Vehicles.— (1) Subject to sub-rules (2) and (4) every dealer who consigns goods by a goods vehicle shall make out a way bill in Form X or Form 600 in triplicate and issue the original and duplicate thereof duly signed by him or his manager or agent to the owner or the other person in charge of the goods vehicle.

For the purpose of this clause, only way bills printed under the authority of the State Government or the Commissioner shall be used. When such waybills are not readily available for use for any reason, the waybills containing the signature and official seal of the Commercial Tax Officer or the Asst. Commissioner having jurisdiction over the consignor shall be used in lieu of such printed waybills :

Provided that the issue of a way bill shall not be necessary where a person who is not a dealer transports his household or other articles for his own use from one place to another and also in respect of transport of the goods specified in Schedule I to the Act.

(2) In the case of goods imported into the State from places out-side the State, the waybill of the State from which the goods commence their journey shall be accepted if accompanied by a tax invoice or a sale invoice or a delivery note or a document in such form, as has been approved by the Commissioner :

Provided that any consignee dealer who desires to import goods notified by the Commissioner of Commercial Taxes to be sensitive, from other States or Union Territories shall send in advance a way bill in duplicate to the consignor. Such way bill in duplicate filled in by the consignor shall accompany the goods and shall be tendered by the person-in-charge of the goods vehicle to the officer-in-charge of the checkpost through which the goods vehicle first enters into the State.

(3) The owner or the other person in charge of the goods vehicle shall carry the original and duplicate of the way bill and shall tender the original way bill to the officer in charge of the Checkpost through which the goods vehicle first passes on its way.

(4) In the case of a manufacturer registered as a VAT dealer the copy of the gate pass-cum-invoice raised by such manufacturer shall be accepted in lieu of the waybill in Form 600 provided the Tax payer Identification Number is superscribed on the gate pass-cum-invoice :

Provided that where any category of manufacturers are notified by the Commissioner as ineligible to use the gate pass-cum-invoice as way bill, they shall make out way bills on Form 600.

(5) Every person obtaining the waybills under sub-rule (i) shall keep and maintain a register in Form 601 showing a true and correct account of the way bills obtained, used and held in stock by him.

(6) Where a way bill either blank or duly filled in is lost, the person who obtained the way bill forms printed under the authority of the Government or containing the signature and official seal of the assessing or by registering authority as the case may be shall forthwith notify the loss in writing to the issuing authority and shall also by way of an indemnity bond furnish such reasonable security as may be demanded by such authority for each waybill lost. Any dealer giving an incorrect and untrue declaration shall be deemed to have committed an offence under the Act.

The transporter or owner or other person in charge of the goods vehicle or a vessel as the case may be shall submit an extract of the entries made in such register of records, extract of entries entered in the long book or goods vehicle records or trip sheet as the case may be for each month to reach the Commercial Tax Officer having jurisdiction over the area in which the goods are delivered before the 10th day of the succeeding month. The register of record maintained shall be made available to any officer of the Commercial Taxes Department

“(7) The owner or other person in-charge of goods vehicle or a vessel, as the case may be, shall submit an extract of the entries recorded in the log book or goods vehicle record or trip sheet, as the case may be, for each month to reach the Commercial Tax Officer having jurisdiction over the area in which the goods are delivered before the tenth day of the succeeding month”.

not below the rank of Deputy Commercial Tax Officer in case of any enquiry, whenever called for the word “transporter” shall include any agency transporting goods by Road, Rail, Air, Water or combination thereof].

¹[(8) The owner or other person in charge of goods vehicle or a vessel or a bus carrying passengers and goods, as the case may be and where such goods are transported for more than one consignee in the State or other States and where such transport of goods are not covered by sub-rule (1) to sub-rule (6) of this rule, shall submit details of the goods being carried in Form-650 at the first entry into the State at the check post. Such Form shall be submitted in duplicate to the officer-in-charge of the check post and after getting it verified and attested by the officer-in-charge of the check post the original should be retained at the check post and the duplicate shall be issued to the person submitting such Form-650 and he shall carry duplicate form alongwith goods vehicle.

(9) The owner or other in charge of goods vehicle or a vessel or a bus carrying passengers and goods, as the case may be and where such goods are transported for more than one consignee in other States and where such transport of goods are not covered by sub-rule (1) to sub-rule (6) of this rule, shall submit details of the goods being carried in Form 651 at the Exit Check Post in the State. Such Form shall be submitted in duplicate to the officer-in-charge of the check post and after getting it verified and attested by the officer-in-charge of the check post, the original should be retained at the check post and the duplicate shall be issued to the person submitting such Form 651 and he shall carry duplicate form alongwith goods vehicle.

(10) The owner or other person in charge of goods vehicle or a vessel or a bus, as the case may be had transported goods covered by Rule 55 (8) and Rule 55 (9), in a month, in addition to complying with the provisions of sub-rule (7) of this rule, shall submit the duplicate copies of Forms 650 and 651 for each month by 10th of the following month to the Deputy Commissioner having jurisdiction over the area where the registered office of such vehicles, buses and vessels carrying goods are located. The copies of duplicate Forms 650 and 651 should also be submitted by their branches and parcel offices if such branches are independently operating and such copies of forms should be submitted to the Deputy Commissioner in whose jurisdiction such branch offices are located or where goods are delivered by such transport vehicles or buses or vessels].

56. Procedures and powers of officers at Checkposts.—

- (1) (a) Subject to sub-rule (2) the officer in charge of the Check post or any other officer authorised shall have the power to stop and inspect any goods vehicle, and all the records. If on such inspection, it is found that there is any discrepancy in the goods or any defect in the records or if any other omission or irregularity is detected; the officer shall issue notice on Form 610 specifying the description, the quantity and the value of the goods proposed to be detained under sub-section (6) of section 45. A copy of the notice shall be served on the owner of the goods and if he is not present on the spot on the driver or any other person in charge of the goods vehicle;
- (b) the security specified in section 45 shall be an amount equal to two times of the tax payable;
 - (c) the security shall be in the form of cash or in the form of bank guarantee, by a bank incorporated under the Banking Regulations (Companies) Act, 1949 (Central Act 10 of 1949);
 - (d) the officer receiving the security and the tax shall issue a receipt in the name of the dealer liable to pay tax and also intimate the details of such collection to the officer concerned having jurisdiction over the place of business of the owner of the goods;
 - (e) the tax collected on detention of the goods or goods vehicle shall be credited to the account of the owner of the goods if he is registered and if he is not registered, the officer specified in clause (d) shall pass proceedings as deemed fit and take appropriate action under the provisions of the Act and these Rules;

- (f) where the tax and the security directed to be paid or furnished is not paid or not furnished, the officer concerned who detained the goods, shall pass an order specifying the description, quantity and value of the goods detained and the reasons for such detention. A copy of the order shall be served on the owner of the goods or on the driver or any other dealer in-charge of the goods vehicle;
- (g) no such detention by any officer concerned shall be for more than three days except with the permission of the next higher authority;
- (h) the next higher authority shall be the Commercial Tax Officer of the area having jurisdiction over the Checkpost or the area in which such detention was made and where the detention is made by the Commercial Tax Officer, the next higher authority shall be the Deputy Commissioner of the area concerned;
- (i) where no claim is made for the goods detained within the time prescribed in the detention order or where the goods detained are subject to speedy and natural decay, the Commercial Tax Officer having jurisdiction over the Checkpost or the area where the detention was made, shall cause sale of such goods in open auction and remit the sale proceeds thereof in a Government treasury provided that, a notice of fifteen days is given before the auction is conducted in respect of goods which are not subject to speedy and natural decay;
- (j) the auction shall be conducted by an officer not below the rank of Deputy Commercial Tax Officer and in case the goods were detained by an officer below the rank of Deputy Commercial Tax Officer the goods shall be transferred to the Deputy Commercial Tax Officer having jurisdiction over the Checkpost or the area within which such detention is made;

- (k) the Deputy Commercial Tax Officer conducting the auction shall cause to be published in the notice board of his office a list of the goods detained and intended for sale with a notice under his signature, specifying the place where, and the date on, and the hour at which the detained goods will be sold in open auction and shall also display copies of such list and notice at the checkpost or the barrier where the goods were detained, and in the office of the Commercial Tax Officer having jurisdiction over the checkpost or barrier where the goods were detained;
- (l) a notice of fifteen days shall be given before the auction is conducted;
- (m) intending bidders shall deposit as earnest money a sum equal to five percent (5%) of the estimated value of the goods;
- (n) at the appointed time, the goods shall be put up in one or more lots, as the officer conducting the auction sale may consider necessary, and shall be knocked down in favour of the highest bidder, subject to the confirmation of sale by the next higher authority;
- (o) the earnest money deposited by the unsuccessful bidders shall be refunded to them;
- (p) the successful bidder shall be permitted to carry the goods only after he has paid the full amount to the officer conducting the auction, failing which the earnest money deposited by him shall be forfeited to the Government and the goods may be resold in the auction. The procedure prescribed for the first auction shall be followed for conducting the subsequent auction;
- (q) the officer receiving the payment for value of goods shall issue a receipt for such payment;

- (r) where an order directing detention is set aside on appeal, the goods so detained shall be released and where they have been sold, the proceeds thereof, shall be paid to the owner of the goods, deducting the expenses incurred from the time of detention of the goods to the time they were sold in auction;
- (s) any person from whom tax is due shall, on application to the officer, who conducted the sale, and upon sufficient proof be paid the sale proceeds after deducting the expenses of sale and other incidental charges and the amount of tax due;
- (t) the procedure specified in this shall apply to give effect to the orders directing refund on appeal or revision.

(2) (a) When the goods are being transported to any destination within the State by a transport operator notified by the Commissioner, the Officer-in-charge of the checkpost or any other officer authorised detecting any discrepancy in the goods or any defect in the records or any other omission or irregularity shall, instead of detaining the goods at the checkpost serve a notice of offence on the approved transport operator and permit such operator to carry the goods to the destination within the State, provided the approved transport operator undertakes to part with the goods only after receipt of the release order from the authority prescribed having jurisdiction over the destination.

The officer-in-charge of the checkpost or officers authorised shall within forty eight hours transmit the notice of offence and other documents if any, to the authority prescribed, having jurisdiction over the destination.

The authority prescribed having jurisdiction over the destination, to whom the notice of offence has been referred shall proceed to take action deemed fit and the procedure prescribed in sub-rule (1) shall mutatis mutandis apply.

- (b) For the purpose of clause (a) the Commissioner of Commercial Taxes shall have the power to approve the transport operator by a notification.

Any transport operator desirous of availing such facility shall apply to the Commissioner along with an indemnity bond to indemnify any loss that may be occasioned to the Government of Andhra Pradesh on account of breach of faith.

The Commissioner of Commercial Taxes shall, after enquiry, may either notify or refuse to notify within fifteen days from the date of the application.

¹[(3) Where the owner or other person in charge of goods vehicle or a vessel or a transport bus carrying passengers and goods has not complied with the provisions made in Rules 55 (8), 55(9) and 55 (10) or carrying goods other than those mentioned in such forms, on verification of such vehicle or bus or vessel, the officer-in-charge of the check post shall detain the vehicle alongwith the goods for further verification. The procedure and powers laid down in sub-rule (1) and sub-rule (2) of this rule shall be followed by the officer-in-charge of the check posts to dispose of such detained goods and vehicles].

57. Procedures and powers of officers at other places.—

(1) At any place other than checkpost or a barrier, the driver or any other person in-charge of a goods vehicle or boat or a vessel as the case may be, on demand, by an officer authorised shall stop the vehicle or boat, as the case may be, and keep it stationary as long as may reasonably be necessary, and allow the officer to examine the contents in the vehicle or boat or vessel and inspect all records relating to the goods carried, which are in the possession of such driver or other person in charge who shall, if so required, give his name and address and the name and address of the owner of the goods vehicle or vessel.

(2) If on such inspection by such officer it is found that any dealer is transporting goods in a goods vehicle or vessel not covered by a waybill in Form 600 or such other document prescribed in Rule 58 issued by the person who consigned the goods, such officer may take action as provided for in Rule 56.

¹[(3) Further on such inspection by such officer it is found that any goods vehicle or a vessel or a bus carrying passengers and goods is not accompanying with the copies of Form-650 or Form 651 as the case may be or such vehicles are carrying the goods other than those mentioned in those forms, such officer may take action as provided for in Rule 56].

58. Transit Movement.— (1) In order to obtain a transit pass under section 47, the driver or the person-in-charge of a goods vehicle shall submit a declaration on Form 615 to the officer-in-charge of the first checkpost or barrier, after his entry into the State and shall also furnish if so required, any other information that may be relevant and necessary.

(2) The officer-in-charge of the first checkpost shall, after examining the documents and after making such enquiries as he deems necessary, shall make out a transit pass on Form 616 in triplicate and issue the original and duplicate thereof duly signed by him to the driver or the person-in-charge of the goods vehicle.

(3) The driver or the person-in-charge of the goods vehicle shall carry the original and duplicate copies of the transit pass and shall tender the original copy to the officer-in-charge of the last checkpost or barrier before his exit from the State.

(4) The driver or the person-in-charge of the goods vehicle shall stop the vehicle and allow the officer-in-charge of the last checkpost or barrier to inspect the documents, transit pass and the goods in order to ensure that the goods being taken out of the State are the same goods for which transit pass had been obtained.

(5) If on such inspection, the officer-in-charge of the last checkpost or barrier is satisfied that the goods transported are the same goods both in quantity and description noted in the transit pass, he shall affix the seal of the checkpost on the duplicate copy of the transit pass under his signature and allow the vehicle to pass into the other State.

(6) If on such inspection, it appears that the quantity of goods under transport is less than the quantity noted in the transit pass or the description of the goods is different from the description noted in the transit pass, the officer-in-charge of the last checkpost or barrier shall presume that the goods to that extent have been sold within the State by the owner or other person-in-charge of the goods vehicle and shall accordingly assess the owner or other person-in-charge of the goods vehicle as specified in section 21. The said officer shall have the power to detain the vehicle so long as he may reasonably deem it necessary.

(7) Powers of the nature referred to in sub-rule (6) may also be exercised by an officer not below the rank of an Assistant Commercial Tax Officer. He shall, however, inform the officer-in-charge of the first checkpost within seven days of such inspection, in case, he proposes to make an assessment.

(8) The original copy of the transit pass, so received by the officer-in-charge of the last checkpost or barrier shall be sent by him by Registered Post, to the officer-in-charge of the first checkpost or barrier within ten days from the date of receipt from the driver or the other person-in-charge of the goods vehicle. Action taken under sub-rule (6) shall also be informed within the said time.

(9) The officer-in-charge of the first checkpost or barrier, if he is not in receipt of the original copy of the transit pass within thirty days of issue by him, shall send a report to the Commercial Tax Officer, having jurisdiction over the first checkpost or barrier who shall assess the owner of the goods vehicle as specified in section 21 read with section 47.

(5) A copy of every order made under sub-rule (4) shall be sent to the applicant and the authority specified in sub-rule (3).

1. Added by G.O.Ms. No. 2201, Rev. (CT-II), dt. 29-12-2005, w.e.f. 01-12-2005. Pub. in the A.P. Gazette Part-I, Ext. No. 892, dt. 31-12-2005.

(6) The authority shall hold its sittings at its headquarters at Hyderabad as and when required and the date and place of hearing shall be notified in such manner as the Chairman may by general or special order direct.

(7) Where an application is admitted under sub-rule (4), the authority shall after examining such further material as may be placed before it by the applicant or obtained by the authority, pass such order as deemed fit on the questions specified in the application, after giving an opportunity to the applicant of being heard, if he so desires. The authority shall pass an order within four weeks of the date of the order admitting the application and a copy of such order shall be sent to the applicant and to the authority specified in sub-rule (3).

(8) (i) The authority may at its discretion permit or require the applicant to submit such additional facts as may be necessary to enable it to pronounce its clarification or advance ruling.

(ii) Where in the course of the proceedings before the authority, a fact is alleged which cannot be borne out by or is contrary to the record, it shall be stated clearly concisely and supported by a duly sworn affidavit.

(9) Where on the date fixed for hearing or any other day to which the hearing may be adjourned, the applicant or the officer concerned does not appear in person or through an authorised representative when called on for hearing, the authority may dispose off the application ex parte on merits :

Provided, that where an application has been so disposed off and the applicant or the authority specified in sub-rule (3), applies within fifteen days of receipt of the order and satisfies the authority that there was sufficient cause for his non-appearance when the application was called upon for hearing, the authority may, after allowing the opposite party a reasonable opportunity of being heard, make an order setting aside the ex parte order and restore the application for fresh hearing.

(10) Where the authority on a representation made to it by any officer or otherwise finds that an order passed by it was obtained by the applicant by fraud or misrepresentation of facts, it may, by order, declare such order to be void ab initio and thereupon all the provisions of the Act and the rules thereunder shall apply to the applicant as if such order had never been made.

(11) A copy of the order made under sub-rule (6) shall be sent to the applicant and the Commissioner or the officer concerned.

(12) Where the applicant dies or the business is wound up or dissolved or disrupted or amalgamated or succeeded to by any other person or otherwise comes to an end, the application shall not abate and may be permitted by the authority, where it considers that the circumstances justify it, to be continued by the executor administrator or other legal representative of the applicant or by the liquidator, receiver or assignee, as the case may be, on an application made in this behalf.

(13) Where the authority finds on its own motion or on a representation made to it by the applicant or the authority specified in sub-rule (3), but before the clarification or ruling pronounced by the authority has been given effect to by the officer concerned, that there is a change in law or facts on the basis of which the clarification or ruling was pronounced, it may by order modify such ruling in such respects as it considers appropriate, after allowing the applicant and the officer a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

(14) (i) The authority may, with a view to rectify any mistake apparent from the record amend any order passed by it before the clarification or ruling or order pronounced by the authority has been given effect to by the officer concerned.

(ii) Such amendment may be made on its own motion or when the mistake is brought to its notice by the applicant or the officer concerned, but only after allowing the applicant and the officer reasonable opportunity of being heard.

67. Treatment of tax incentive cases.— (1) Where any unit is availing a tax holiday on the date of commencement of the Act, it shall be treated as converted as the unit availing tax deferment. The balance period available as on the 31st day of March 2005 to such units shall be doubled. The eligibility amount shall be the balance available to such unit as on that date. Balance period means the difference of period between date of completion of eligibility shown in the certificate of eligibility and the 1st day of April 2005.

(2) The units already availing tax deferment prior to commencement of the Act, shall continue to be eligible to avail the balance amount available as on the 31st day of March 2005 and for the period as mentioned in the eligibility certificate.

(3) The tax payable and the tax to be claimed as deferment for each period shall be the net tax (i.e. output tax less input tax) which shall be debited to the eligibility amount. ¹[x x x]
